My Baby Hugs Bear's
Birthday

Caring for a baby Care Bear is fun but there is a lot you need to know.

Sometimes Baby Hugs Bear
wakes up early in the morning and other times she sleeps in.
You have to be ready to take care of her whenever she wakes up.

Once she wakes up,
Baby Hugs Bear needs you to wash her face and check her diaper.

Then it's breakfast time!
Baby Hugs Bear has her morning bottle. She also loves applesauce, but be sure she's wearing a bib!

Baby Hugs Bear wants you to play with her. One of her favorite games is peek-a-boo.
It always makes her giggle!

Fresh air and sunshine are good for baby bears. If it's a nice day, Baby Hugs Bear likes to play outside. If it's a little cool, be sure you put a sweater on her!

Whee! Baby Hugs Bear loves the slide, but you have to be extra careful with her.

Give Baby Hugs Bear a push
on the swing-not too high, though!
You might scare her.

Of all the things a baby bear needs,
the one she needs most of all is love. Be sure to hold her and hug her lots!

Ways to Care for Baby Hugs Bear

Give her a bottle.
Comfort her if she's scared.
Read stories to her.
Take her for a walk.
Sing songs to her.
Play with her.
Care for her when she's sick.
Clean her when she's dirty.
Rock her to sleep.
Tuck her in at night.
Check her diaper.
Hug her often.

Give her lots and lots of love!

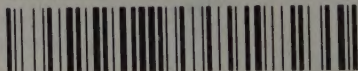

The background of the cover is a light blue sky filled with large, white, fluffy clouds. Scattered throughout the sky are several yellow, five-pointed stars of varying sizes. Some stars have simple faces with two dots for eyes and a curved line for a smile. There are also heart-shaped balloons: a purple one in the upper left, a pink one in the lower right, and a light blue one in the lower left. Each heart balloon is attached to a yellow star character by a thin, wavy line. The title 'Care Bears' is written in a large, stylized, multi-colored font with a rainbow gradient and a black outline, positioned in the center of the cover.
